The most visited museum in Pennsylvania, The Franklin Institute brings science to life through interactive exhibitions that spark curiosity for groups of any age. Discover 10 incredible permanent exhibits featuring hundreds of hands-on interactives including a walk-through Giant Heart, take a photo with an impressive four-story marble statue of Ben Franklin, gaze at the daytime sky in the rooftop Joel N. Bloom Observatory, &more.

*2:15PM - Vikings: Journey to New Worlds at the Tuttleman IMAX Theater – While popular and intriguing characters in world history, Vikings are also greatly misunderstood. Vikings: Journey to New Worlds provides a comprehensive portrait of the Vikings, exploring their historical and cultural impact as well as their technological and scientific achievements, and in the process takes audiences on a cinematic adventure through the lands they settled and explored. The dawn of the Viking Age was a raid on an English monastery in the year 793 A.D. that established their reputation as marauding heathens from the North. But it was shipbuilding skills that truly set the Vikings apart. Propelled by their wondrous ships, the Vikings stormed across Europe and the North Atlantic.

*3:00PM - Vikings: Beyond the Legend Exhibition at The Franklin Institute – Who were the Vikings? How did they live? How did their belief, skills, and culture influence our modern world? Journey back to Scandinavia in the Viking Age! While Vikings engaged in invading and pillaging, their societies were complex and multifaceted. They were skilled craftspeople, successful merchants, and hard-working farmers whose influence was felt across western Europe and beyond. Vikings: Beyond the Legend brings people from the Viking period to life with a wealth of unique objects, multimedia productions and interactive elements revealing the captivating story of the explorers who set sail from Scandinavia centuries ago. This exhibition features 600 artifacts, an authentic Viking Ship – the Roskilde 6 – the longest remaining Viking warship at nearly 122 feet long, Norse mythology, authentic Viking games & more. The North American premiere invites visitors to explore hundreds of archaeological discoveries and rare treasures, plus dramatic
