

FRIDAY, JULY 17, 2020 – BEHIND THE SCENES OF ESPIONAGE &
LAW ENFORCEMENT IN WASHINGTON, DC

- 8:00 AM - leave Kohl's, Westminster (Rt. 140 & Market Street)
- 8:15 AM - leave Vanessa's Corner Pub (VCP), Taylorsville (Rt. 26 & 27)
- 8:30 AM - leave Mt. Airy Park 'n Ride (Rt. 27)
- 10:00-2:00 - Self-guided visit at the BRAND NEW International Spy Museum – Re-opened in a BRAND NEW location on May 12, 2019, the International Spy Museum recognizes the ingenuity and imagination of real-life spies with the largest collection of international espionage artifacts ever placed on public display. The Spy Museum is the perfect place for visitors to dive into the shadowy world of espionage. Learn about intelligence through the ages from ancient times up to post 9/11. Test your own spy skills through RFID experiences, explore interactive exhibits, and real tools of the trade. Discover how the work of real spies shaped world history and continues to play a role today. Hear real stories from real spies. The Spy Museum works closely with former international intelligence leaders to deliver an authentic, unbiased experience. Uncover the tradecraft, motivation, tools, evolution, and impact of espionage throughout history and across the globe. Lunch will be on your own at the L'Enfant Plaza Food Court adjacent to the museum.
- 2:30-4:15 - Self-guided visit at the BRAND NEW National Law Enforcement Museum – Opened in October 2018, the National Law Enforcement Museum is dedicated to telling the story of American law enforcement by providing visitors a “walk in the shoes” experience. Within the walls of the Museum’s strikingly contemporary exterior, artifacts from the collection of more than 20,000 objects tell the story of American law enforcement – past, present, and future – and engage visitors of all ages in memorable, immersive and experiential exhibits. The Museum will serve as a platform for constructive dialog to help strengthen relationships between law enforcement and the communities they serve. Prepare to discover the most interactive Museum in the district. You will be able to solve a crime in the “Take the Case” Exhibit, go undercover with the “Covert Operations” Exhibit, make the tough decisions as a 911 dispatcher, and test your skills in the immersive training simulator. The Museum’s befitting location at Judiciary Square in our nation’s capital marks the first time a national museum dedicated to telling the story of American law enforcement will have a permanent home.
