

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 2020 – A LONGWOOD GARDENS
BRANDYWINE CHRISTMAS

- 12:30 PM - leave Kohl's, Westminster (Rt. 140 & Market Street)
- 12:45 PM - leave Chartley Park Shopping Center, Reisterstown
- 3:00-4:15 - Holiday Magic at Brandywine River Museum of Art – Celebrate the holiday season with a self-guided visit of the Brandywine Railroad, an annual holiday family favorite at the Brandywine since 1972 featuring plenty of trains, miniature details and the engaging elements that everyone loves—including interactive components operated by hands-free foot pedals. The Brandywine's famous O-gauge display will feature model trains running on a thousand feet of track through a small village, a drive-in movie theater and even a carnival. Exciting new additions of two model train sets with layouts once owned by Nicky and Jamie Wyeth—sons of the renowned American artist, Andrew Wyeth will also be on display. Also featured will be artist and composer Ann Wyeth McCoy's dollhouse, which features six rooms filled with three-dozen dolls and hundreds of miniature objects that will delight visitors of all ages. The Brandywine's whimsical Critter ornaments, handcrafted by volunteers, will return to decorate the towering trees in the Museum's three-story atrium. The Museum is renowned for its holdings of the Wyeth family of artists, and features galleries dedicated to the work of N. C. Wyeth, Andrew Wyeth and Jamie Wyeth which you can peruse during your visit.
- 4:30-8:00 - Christmas at Longwood Gardens (Kennett Square, PA) – This holiday season, experience all the traditions that make A Longwood Christmas so special. Find heartwarming moments amid towering trees laden with one-of-a-kind ornaments...marvel at horticultural artistry in the form of floral trees and wreaths...and watch your family's eyes sparkle along with the dazzling light display. Celebrate the nostalgia of past holiday memories—and share in the excitement of many more memories to come. Inside, stroll through beautiful plant palettes of delicate winter whites to rich reds and the greenest of evergreens as you wrap yourself up in a nostalgic Christmas morning scene. Let the snowy white cyclamen lead the way, engage your senses with fragrant lilies and paperwhites, and relish in the timeless beauty of Christmas favorites like poinsettia and kalanchoe woven throughout the Conservatory. Outdoors, revel in wide-open vistas of radiant lights hung from the historic trees and feel like a kid again with the Garden Railway. Stroll among glowing orbs and find magic within the shimmering tunnel of light. Right down to the cozy fire pits that not only warm the hands—but also the heart—a spirit of merriment, of joy, of time-honored happiness awaits
