PENNSYLVANIA'S GRAND CANYON FALL ADVENTURE

OCTOBER 2-4, 2022

Marvel at the scenic beauty and brilliant autumn colors on this exciting fall excursion to Northern Central Pennsylvania. The magnificent PA Grand Canyon, located in Tioga County, stretches approximately 47 miles and is surrounded by 165,000 acres of Tioga State Forest. Explore the area and enjoy a variety of fun activities on this fall splendor getaway!

Departure/return times and pickup location are as follows:

	DEPART	RETURN
Kohl's, Westminster Rt. 140 & Market St. (Rear of parking lot)	7:00 A.M.	7:30 P.M.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2: We will travel north today along scenic routes with a fast food breakfast stop planned en route to Williamsport, PA, the seat of Lycoming County. A guided tour of the World of Little League Museum will inform and educate about the history, service, goals, and initiatives of Little League® Baseball and Softball with a dynamic presentation of how it has intertwined with U.S. and world history through interactive exhibits and artifacts. Originally opened in 1982, the museum is now one of the world's finest sports institutions. Then, take a relaxing cruise onboard the Hiawatha Paddlewheel Riverboat on the Susquehanna River. Through narration and music, hear the story of the Hiawatha and learn the rich history of the early days along the river while enjoying a boxed lunch during your ride. We will continue our travels a little farther to Wellsboro, where we will check into our accommodations for the tour at:

PENN WELLS LODGE (570)724-3463
4 Main Street
Wellsboro, PA 16901

A delicious dinner is scheduled at the hotel this evening with free time to explore downtown afterwards.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 3: After a leisure breakfast at the hotel, we will depart for a tasty visit to Patterson's Maple Farm where the Patterson family has been collecting and processing the finest quality maple products for five generations. Tour the sugar house operation where you will learn the history of making maple syrup from the Indians to the present day and enjoy a sit-down deluxe tasting of some of their delicious products. We will then enjoy a horse drawn Ole Covered Wagon Tour through the beautiful Pine Creek Gorge, also known as the PA Grand Canyon. The tour guides are fluent in the history of the Canyon going back to the 19th century and will tell the tales while the horses wind their way on the Pine Creek Rail Trail deep into the heart of the Canyon. The wagons are custom-made for the Canyon rides providing a very comfortable, unique experience. Afterwards, get your cameras ready as we will enjoy the most famous magnificent views from the top of the Canyon at the 585-acre Leonard Harrison State

Park, located on the east rim of the Canyon. Later this afternoon, have some time to relax and freshen up, or explore the shops along Main Street in downtown Wellsboro. This evening, we will enjoy a fun-filled “Taste of Wellsboro” dinner experience at the Deane Center with Rookie Cooks. Local vendors will share descriptions of their products and processes while serving samples of each, prior to a delicious dinner prepared with a chef cooking demonstration. You are sure to leave with a full belly and retreat to the Lodge for a restful night of sleep!

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4: After breakfast this morning, we will depart Wellsboro and travel to the Corning Museum of Glass, the world's largest space dedicated to the display of contemporary art and design in glass. On the self-guided visit, explore 35 centuries of glassmaking through nearly 50,000 objects—from a tiny glass portrait of an ancient Egyptian pharaoh to modern and contemporary masterpieces by Tiffany and Chihuly. See live hot glass demonstrations, a great way to see how glass is made by amazing artists. See how glass changes the world in the interactive science and technology exhibit. And save time for shopping the extensive selection of 15,000 items including jewelry, accessories, holiday ornaments, and collectibles in every price range, from original works of art to everyday items for the home. A gift card will be provided towards your lunch purchase in the museum café. We will depart in the early afternoon to travel homeward, making a dinner stop at Cracker Barrel en route, and reminiscing of the memories made on this spectacular autumn getaway!
