Artifacts include Dead Sea Scroll fragments, some of the earliest known New Testament writings, numerous historical manuscripts, and first-edition Bibles.

The Narrative Floor – This area of the museum encompasses 50,000 square feet, and is dedicated to telling the stories of the Bible. It connects 21st century audiences to the Bible by taking them on a journey and inviting them to be a part of its stories.

The Impact Floor – This floor expresses the Bible's immense influence - not only on cultures and various aspects of civilization, but also on the lives of individuals.
