- 4:00-6:00 - American Music Theatre with “An Intimate Evening with Priscilla Presley” – Priscilla Presley has often been called an icon of the entertainment World. Now, in this all-new “Evening With”, Priscilla Presley is finally going to tell HER story of the years with the King of Rock and Roll, Elvis Presley. Even though she was only fourteen years old when she met Elvis, her memories are clear and tell a fascinating tale of a young girl who, for reasons she finally explains, was someone whom Elvis wanted to know. And for years after they met, they were inseparable until his passing in 1977.
She will share film clips that have been private to her, including wedding footage, home movies, and clips from her own personal career in film, and on television in the famed series, “Dallas” on which she starred for five years. She speaks of Elvis as a husband, as a father, and the challenge of being married to the greatest rock and roll star in the world! She talks of how she coped with the attention and the “women” who always seemed to be in their life. As glamorous was her life, it was not always easy, and as Elvis got older, she had to learn how to understand all that surrounded his fame. And then when the end came, she tells, in detail, what it was like to deal with his death. (Center Orchestra Seating)
