PENNSYLVANIA'S GRAND CANYON FALL ADVENTURE

OCTOBER 19-21, 2025

Marvel at the scenic beauty and brilliant autumn colors on this exciting fall excursion to Northern Central Pennsylvania. The magnificent Pennsylvania Grand Canyon, located in Tioga County, stretches approximately 47 miles and is surrounded by 165,000 acres of Tioga State Forest. Explore the area and enjoy a variety of fun activities on this fall splendor getaway!

Departure/return times and pickup location are as follows:

	DEPART	RETURN
Kohl's, Westminster Rt. 140 & Market St. (Rear of parking lot)	7:15 A.M.	7:30 P.M.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19: We will travel north today along scenic routes with a fast food breakfast stop planned en route to Williamsport, PA, the seat of Lycoming County. A guided tour of the World of Little League Museum will inform and educate about the history, service, goals, and initiatives of Little League® Baseball and Softball with a dynamic presentation of how it has intertwined with U.S. and world history through interactive exhibits and artifacts. Originally opened in 1982, the museum is now one of the world's finest sports institutions. Then, take a relaxing cruise onboard the Hiawatha Paddlewheel Riverboat on the Susquehanna River. Through narration and music, hear the story of the Hiawatha and learn the rich history of the early days along the river while enjoying a boxed lunch during your ride. We will continue our travels a little farther to Wellsboro, where we will check into our accommodations for the tour at:

PENN WELLS LODGE (570)724-3463
4 Main Street
Wellsboro, PA 16901

Dinner is scheduled down the street at the Penn Wells Hotel this evening, along with a brief overview of this Wellsboro historic landmark. Built in 1869 and restored in the 1920s, the Hotel features 70 character-filled guest rooms, an elegant Lobby, and Mary Wells Dining Room that will transport guests to a bygone era.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 20: After a leisure breakfast at the hotel, we will enjoy a horse-drawn Ole Covered Wagon Tour through the beautiful Pine Creek Gorge, also known as the Pennsylvania Grand Canyon. The tour guides are fluent in the history of the Canyon going back to the 19th century and will tell the tales while the horses wind their way on the Pine Creek Rail Trail deep into the heart of the Canyon. The wagons are custom-made for the Canyon rides providing a very comfortable, unique experience. Afterwards, a delicious "Cowboy Cookout Lunch" is scheduled on property. This afternoon, we will visit Highland Chocolates for a tour of their facility & browsing their tasty products.

Highland Chocolates is a staple in the Wellsboro area & is a non-profit chocolate factory and retail store that provides vocational training and employment for adults with disabilities. They offer “Extraordinary Chocolates by Extraordinary People!” Then, get your cameras ready as we enjoy the most famous magnificent views from the top of the Canyon at the 585-acre Leonard Harrison State Park, located on the east rim of the Canyon. Educational information and displays are available at the Visitor Center, and there is also a Pennsylvania Wilds Conservation Shop. Later this afternoon, have some time to relax and freshen up, or explore the shops along Main Street in downtown Wellsboro. This evening, we will enjoy a fun-filled “Taste of Wellsboro” culinary dinner experience with Rookie Cooks Academy. Immerse yourself in the rich flavors and artisanal delights that define this picturesque region during this exclusive event. Local vendors will share descriptions of their products and processes while serving samples of each, prior to a delicious dinner prepared with a chef cooking demonstration. You are sure to leave with a full belly and retreat to the Lodge for a restful night of sleep!

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21: After breakfast this morning, we will depart the hotel for a tasty visit to Patterson’s Maple Farm where the Patterson family has been collecting and processing the finest quality maple products for five generations. Tour the sugar house operation where you will learn the history of making maple syrup from the Indians to the present day and enjoy a sit-down deluxe tasting of some of their delicious products. We will begin our travels homeward, stopping in Lewisburg, PA at Fero Vineyards & Winery for wine tasting & an overview of their winery. Fero wine is made with estate-grown grapes using old-world varieties from Pennsylvania-grown in the heart of the Susquehanna River Valley. Then, we complete our journey, making an early dinner stop at Cracker Barrel, and reminiscing of the memories made on this spectacular autumn getaway!
